GOVERNOR'S YOUTH COMMISSION APPLICATION

OVERVIEW

This application is to assist applicants who mail-in their application instead of submitting it through the online form. This application will contain all of the same parts of the online form. These are the parts to the application:

- Part 1 – Applicant Contact Information
- Part 2 – Parent Contact Information
- Part 3 – Short Essays
 - Personal Statement
 - Leadership Statement
 - Project Planning
- Part 4 – Resume
- Part 5 – Letter of Recommendation
 - Please include one letter of recommendation with the application. The letter can be from a teacher, faculty member, community leader, or youth group leader. Please note that the letter of recommendation must be typed and on official letterhead if possible. You may submit up to two letters, but only one is required.
 - If Recommenders prefer to submit their letter separately, they can do so by emailing their letter to Vianney Careaga at vcareaga@az.gov. We ask for recommenders to list the applicant's name in the email.
- Part 6 – OReO (Orientation, Retreat, and Onboarding) Attendance
- Part 7 – Signature Page

MAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Please be sure to include page 1 (cover) to page 7 of the application as part of your mailed-in application. Once all parts have been assembled, please mail the application to the following:

ATTN: Governor's Youth Commission
Governor's Office of Youth, Faith and Family
1700 West Washington Street, Suite 230

Must be typed, double-spaced, in 12 point font, and in Times New Roman font or the like.

Personal Statement:

- Please provide a short personal statement about why you want to serve on the GYC and what you hope to gain from the experience. In 200 words or less, please respond to this question.
- Example title: “Personal Statement”

Leadership Statement:

- Describe your leadership background and experiences that have helped form your outlook on leadership. In 200 words or less, please respond to this question.
- Example title: “Leadership Statement”

Project Planning:

- The GYC achieves its mission through its Workgroups. Workgroups are formed around focus areas and Commissioners work through a project planning process designed to help Commissioners learn more about the specific issues within the focus areas that affect youth the most and identify ways in which youth can make an impact. During the discovery phase of this process, Commissioners are expected to research, engage with subject matter experts, and discuss information with each other. At the end of the discovery phase, Commissioners will submit a proposal for a project that the Workgroup will engage in to address an identified issue of the focus area. Identify a critical issue facing youth in Arizona today within the below listed focus areas and what would you suggest the GYC do to help address this issue? Focus areas: Bullying & Cyberbullying, Civic Engagement, Distracted Driving, Domestic Violence, Education, Food Insecurity, Juvenile Justice, Physical & Mental Health, Substance Abuse, Sustainable Development, and Technology & Connectivity. In 500 words or less, please respond to this question. Please provide citations to support your answer. Your works cited, references, or bibliography will not be counted towards the word count. Please include the focus area as part of the essay title and include your word count at the end of the essay.
- Example title: “Project Planning: [Insert Focus Area]”
