

Tina M.
Mattison
Deputy Court
Administrator

Pima County
Juvenile Court
Center

2000: New Pima County Juvenile Court building and detention center

•2004: Partner with Annie E. Casey and The Burns Institute

2006: Domestic Violence Program Lead appointed

2007: Title II Grant received for Domestic Violence program

2007: Domestic Violence Alternative Center (DVAC) opens in community

```
graph TD; A[2007: Domestic Violence Alternative Center (DVAC) opens in community] --> B[2008: Domestic Violence Education classes begin for youth referred]; B --> C[2011: DVAC opens on campus with 24-hour service]; C --> D[2017: Alternative Community Engagement Services (ACES) Center opens];
```

2008: Domestic Violence Education classes begin for youth referred

2011: DVAC opens on campus with 24-hour service

2017: Alternative Community Engagement Services (ACES) Center opens

PIMA COUNTY
JUVENILE COURT

2225 EAST AJO WAY

ACES Resources

- Respite Care
- Screenings
- Safety/Success Planning
- Referral to Community Resources
- Food & Clothing
- Transportation
- Recreation Areas
- Case Management

Juvenile cases in Pima

	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021 (Oct)
Complaints	6600	5482	5522	3292	2074
Petitions	2100	1952	1985	1388	753
Brought to Detention	1011	945	873	562	367
Detained	630	615	553	533	245

ACES - Data

Number of Referrals to ACES	2018	2019	2020	2021(Oct)
DV Offenses	615	559	502	357
Total	767	616	607	429

ACES – Data

Caregivers Served by Year	2018	2019	2020	2021 (Oct)
Total	986	784	733	526

DV Education program

Youth

Guardian

Evening Reporting Center

Thank You

tmattison@sc.pima.gov

(520) 724-2068